Schofield's Patent Cotton Press

THIS PRESS must commend itself to the cotton planters of the Southern States for durability, simplicity of construction, and case with which it can be operated by eith hoad, horse, under or seam power, the change from one to the other being effected in a failuties. A great advantage this Press possesses is that occupies for hand power only space of fourteen feet square, and may be placed and operated in a gin-house, thus avoid in a scenario of taking certain ont of the home to be packed. It can be used in any kind weather; the Fress being in the house, miny days are no obstacle to packing, as is the case wi wooden screws. Another advantegs is, when you get Schodeld's Fress, you have a Press all time, and one not liable to decay or break, as is the case with the old wooden screwal time, and one not liable to decay or break, as is the case with the old wooden screwal to cast, and the reames are of wrought from, and no part of the Press list to decay touches the ground. The frames may be made or wood, at the option of the plant Planters may purchase either the screw and not along and put the grame and box wood to it themselves, or may purchase the screw, not and iron frames, and put the wood box to it the mestives, or may purchase the screw, not and iron frames, and put the wood box to it the mestives, or may purchase the screw, not and iron frames, and por the wood box to it the mestives, or may purchase the screw, not and iron frames, and put the rome to the first and and along the most complete Press to more. Presses complete, with screw, not, iron frames as bex, making the most complete Press to more Presses complete, as has named, are in my general me, and give great satisfaction to all parties using there, as well be seen from lettern.

Parties in need of cotton presses would do well to call, if possible, and examine mine r if they should layor me with their order, they may rely upon getting a Press that is all. aim for it.

eed repairs, as is the case with wood. In putting them up complete at my establishment, say do not differ from the Hand Power only in pitch of thread or screw, and different kind of levers for working. One horse can pack five to eight hundred pounds on this Press.

J. S. SCHOFIELD, Proprietor. That planters may get their Presses in time, will take in payment warehouse acceptance, due October 1, 1870, at cost prices, as above.

Schofield's Patent Cotton Press received the First Premium at the Georgia State Fair for 1869. It was proved superior to anything for plantation ection packing on the ground. It is put up more substantially, is more simple and efficient than any cotton press in use. There is nothing complicated or to get out of order about it, and after being used twenty years, will be as good as new. I ever presses will not do, they will get out of order, and in a few months become a useless article, and are displaced by a screw press.

This cotton press is fast displacing the old wood screw and other presses, and of over 500 presses soul last season. I have not beard a complaint from one; but on the contrary, and daily in receipt of letters from the first plantars of all the Cotton States certifying to their efficacy, and expressing their opinion that it is superior to all others.
